

Frank T. Morgan, PhD (Frank)

GLOBAL DIRECTOR, EXECUTIVE DEVELOPMENT & LEADERSHIP
THE DOW CHEMICAL COMPANY
ADJUNCT FACULTY
THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL

Frank is the corporate head of executive development and leadership at Dow Chemical and teaches at UNC-CH. His research, teaching and consulting activities involve leadership, strategy and change in large scale and international organizations. He has published articles on those subjects in numerous periodicals including the Harvard Business Review.

Frank has taught in executive education and MBA programs at the University of North Carolina, the Darden School at the University of Virginia, the University of Ulster, IDE (Ecuador), INALDE (Colombia), the Swiss Management University and Southern Yangtze University (China). His active consulting assignments include the following:

Bank of America	Hercules Corporation
Bank of Iceland	NASA
Cigna	Nortel
Dow Chemical	Oak Ridge National Laboratories
Federal Express	Premek (Switzerland)
General Electric	PWC (Price, Waterhouse, Coopers)
General Motors	US Navy

Prior to his position at Dow Chemical, Frank was Director of Executive Education and Professor of Management at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's Kenan-Flagler Business School and at the University of Virginia's Darden Graduate School of Business Administration. Before beginning his academic career, he held senior leadership positions at major international firms including Senior Group Vice-President, member of the Corporate Executive Committee, and Board Chairman for subsidiary companies in Europe and Latin America. He holds an A.B. in psychology from Princeton University, a M.S. in organizational psychology from Pennsylvania State University, completed his doctoral course work at Stevens Institute of Technology in management science, and holds a Ph.D. in business management from California Coast University.